Candle-lite

Manufacturers of quality candles in the USA since 1840

Cincinnati, OH, USA – December 2008 - Candle-lite, a division of Lancaster Colony (LANC), has long been recognized as a leader in the candle manufacturing industry. Candle-lite designs, manufactures and wholesales the highest quality candles, candle accessories, and other home fragrance products in various sizes and fragrances from its 900,000 square foot manufacturing plant in the village of Leesburg, OH.

In addition to the well-respected Candle-lite brand, a portion of the company's candle business is marketed under private label brands and licensed properties including Laura Ashley and Entenmann's.

Candle-lite has proudly manufactured high quality and ASTM compliant candles for over 160 years in the United States. Strict adherence to industry standards, a state-of-the-art burn testing facility, continuous research and development are just a few of the areas that contribute to Candle-lite's ability to consistently manufacture quality products.

Candle-lite's in-house design team tracks global trends and partners with high-end international fragrance manufacturers to identify and create on-trend product offerings.
